

Milagro, the Half-Pound Pup

Millie was the runt of the litter
a tough little pup, a smart little critter
When life got rough, she got tougher
She never gave up
She wouldn't be a quitter

So... When you wake up & your hair looks bad
You got no friends & you feel so sad
Got a giant zit on the end of your nose
Your shoes ain't cool & you hate your clothes
The bully on the corner has his eye on you
Your parents are crabby & your teachers are, too
You lose your homework & your pencil breaks
You flunk your test & your stomach aches

When life just stinks ... don't give up
Remember Milagro, the half-pound pup

Millie was the runt of the litter

When life got rough, she got tougher
She never gave up
She wouldn't be a quitter
